LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST LESSON

Genesis 3:8-15

They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate." The LORD God said to the serpent,

"Because you have done this,
cursed are you among all animals
and among all wild creatures;
upon your belly you shall go,
and dust you shall eat
all the days of your life.

I will put enmity between you and the woman,
and between your offspring and hers;
he will strike your head,
and you will strike his heel."

People: Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

Psalm 130

De profundis

1 Out of the depths have I called to you, O LORD;
LORD, hear my voice; *

- let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.
- 2 If you, LORD, were to note what is done amiss, *
O Lord, who could stand?
- 3 For there is forgiveness with you; *
therefore you shall be feared.
- 4 I wait for the LORD; my soul waits for him; *
in his word is my hope.
- 5 My soul waits for the LORD,
more than watchmen for the morning, *
more than watchmen for the morning.
- 6 O Israel, wait for the LORD, *
for with the LORD there is mercy;
- 7 With him there is plenteous redemption, *
and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

THE SECOND LESSON

2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—"I believed, and so I spoke"—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

gave it to his friends, saying: "Take this, all of you, and eat it. This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in memory of me."

Through this cup, which is set before us, by the power of your Holy Spirit, may it be for us and all creation, the cup of salvation, the life of Christ, poured out to give new life. Jesus gave the cup to his friends, saying: "Take this, all of you, and drink from it. This is the cup of the new covenant sealed in my blood. Do this in memory of me." Let us now proclaim in faith.

People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider: Send your Holy Spirit upon us who gather at this table. Help us to realize that in receiving Christ's body and blood that we are strengthened to be light and love for others. Give us the courage to inspire justice and love in all disputes, to find hope in the midst of suffering, and live with integrity, the faith we proclaim.

People: By the power of this holy sacrament, revive us, as we live your life on earth. Inspire us, that we show your glory in thanksgiving and praise, this and every day, from us and all people, here and everywhere, Amen

Presider: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we pray:

People:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,
your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Offertory Hymn

O bless the Lord my soul

Hymn 411

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider: The Lord is here.

People: God's Spirit is with us.

Presider: We celebrate the Divine Presence,

People: With us and in us all

Presider: In time and in eternity,

People: Thanks be to God

Presider: We offer thanks and praise to you, Living God,

People: You send your Holy Spirit to strengthen and guide us, to challenge and to revive your Church.

Presider: Therefore, with all that is around us, gifts of creation, and all that is within us, our loves, our joys and our tears, our hopes and our dreams, with the holy angels of light, and with the whole company of heaven, with your blessed ones who have gone before us, and those who shall come after, we join in the song of your unending greatness:

Sanctus

Hymn S128

Presider: Living God, Giver of all holiness, Source of all love, Fountain of all wisdom, You take the dry bread of Earth and turn it into the banquet of Heaven. You take the good wine of creation and quicken us with the new life of your Spirit.

People: You dry our tears, And turn our pain to joy. You fill the empty places of our hearts, and bring your light; the love shown by the cross, and the love which is with us now, the love which carries us through death to resurrection.

Presider: Through this bread, which we break and share in your name, by the power of your Holy Spirit, may it be for us and all creation, the Bread of Heaven, the Body of Christ, your holy presence that unites us in yourself. Jesus broke the bread and

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Deacon/Presider: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Mark 3:20-35

The crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind." And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons." And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered. "Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"— for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."
